

13th
Balkan Congress of Human Genetics
Trakya University, Edirne - TURKEY

13th Balkan Congress of Human Genetics organized to initiate with four different courses in parallel classes, lectures in two parallel halls, oral presentations in four study rooms for two days and also providing a special time for poster presentations, where participants will find time to discuss their projects.

Our scientific program covers a wide range of topics, spanning from prenatal diagnosis, preimplantation genetic diagnosis, non invasive prenatal screening, rare diseases, cancer genetics, complex genetic disorders to pharmacogenetics, personalized medicine, last but not least omics data and bioinformatics.